

Product Manager (IT Security)

Responsibilities

- Develop and implement marketing strategies, design and execute marketing campaigns for the assigned product
- Maintain sales to meet the target
- Coordinate to solve problems before and after sales
- Plan, organize and implement special events to support the promotional strategies and territory goals
- Provide technical consultation and training to sales teams and customers
- To achieve annual sales budget within approved promotional expenses budget

Qualification

- Bachelor's Degree or higher in Marketing or related fields
- Adaptable, proactive and willing to learn
- Good team player, problem solving, analytical skill and organizing
- Be able to work in a fast paced work environment and able to work under pressure
- Interpersonal skills, pleasant & mature personality and excellent service attitude is a must
- Proficient in MS office
- Good command in English
- Experience in IT industry would be an advantage