

Position: Cyber Security Analyst (Vulnerable Management : Penetration Test)

Job Responsibilities

- Cyber Security Service for Vulnerability management, Phishing Service act as Team member for Penetration project.
- Conduct the penetration test for the relate platforms such as Mobile Applications, Web applications and Infrastructure.
- To be a consultant for Application and Infra team to fix vulnerability.
- Research Security threats/Attack vectors and provide remediation method to all levels of Information Technology.
- Update policy and guidelines for Application, Infra and Network security.
- Security assessment report and monthly report.

Job Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or higher in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Information Technology or related fields (GPA: Major in Engineering at least 2.75, Other Major at least 3.0)
- At least 0-5 year experiences in relevant Compliance , ITIL and security, IT Audits ,IT Risk Governance working experience.
- Knowledge of Security Framework and Concepts, Compliance, Risk and Regulations, PCI DSS, COBIT.
- Experience along with certifications including CEH, CISSP, OSCP, SANS is a plus.
- Good interpersonal skill and Analytical skills including of High Self motivations and Adaptive to learn a New technology also new challenges to unplanning process.
- Pleasant and enthusiastic personality, good interpersonal skills, self-motivation, customer oriented and strong analytical skills
- Good Command of spoken and written English (Require TOEIC Scores: at least 550)