

Security Governance Consultant

Job Description

- Develop and implement information security and data governance policies, standards, processes and security controls for the organisation in compliance with ISO27001, PCI DSS, PDPA, regulations and law.
- Perform Data Classification and Information Security risk assessment.
- Perform data governance and security compliance review to internal teams and third parties.
- Identify emerging threats/vulnerabilities and analyze cyber threat modeling and identify preventive countermeasures to mitigate the risk of cyber attack.
- Work with project teams to ensure that the implemented technology solutions meet the policies, standards, regulations and law.
- Develop role-based access control for applications to prevent the risk of insider threat.
- Conduct access right review for applications/systems to minimize the risk of unauthorized access.
- Establish information security and data governance awareness program for staff and OWASP secure coding guidelines for developers.
- Guide relevant teams to harden OS, DBs, workstations and network components based on CIS baseline
- Update knowledge and technical skill to cope with new vulnerability and threats.

EDUCATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Information Technology or IT related field.
- Experience in information security governance and risk management, threat modeling, secure solution design and/or penetration testing.

EXPERIENCES:

- CISSP, CISM, CISA, CRISC, GIAC, OSCP and/or CEH certifications preferred
- Knowledge of Thailand's information security regulations and security standards, such as ISO27001, PCI DSS and experience in their implementation
- Knowledge and experience in information security governance and risk management, threat modeling, secure solution design and/or penetration testing.
- Good command of written and spoken English.
- Good interpersonal skills – able to communicate effectively with various levels (from end-users to executives).
- Logical & systematic approach to problem solving